

“God’s Invitation to Transformation ” Acts 2

Transformation

Pentecost arrives

Invitation extended

“I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants.”

Isaiah 44:3

Questions to Ponder

When was a time you experienced being transformed from what you had been?

What caught your attention from our scripture today?

- Give some thought to why you are drawn to this.
- What might God be saying to you?

What do you think surprised the 120 men and women most when the Holy Spirit finally arrived?

- Using your imagination, what might it have been like in the upper room?

How did the Holy Spirit effect Peter, the disciples, the people encountering the disciples?

There are at least three expressions of the Holy Spirit from Acts 2

- Greater clarity and understanding of scripture. (John 16:13)
- Running to where God is leading. (Galatians 5:25)
- Experiencing freedom like never before – particularly from fear. (2 Corinthians 3:17)

In what ways have you experienced these “marks” of the Holy Spirit?

What will you do with God’s invitation to dance?

- Will you welcome and embrace it?
- Letting Him lead, guide, direct and control your life?
